The steps of negotiations

Illustrations by Simon Banville and text by Martin Cayouette, Communications Advisor

How are the negotiations going?

It’s all moving forward, we’re taking all of the necessary steps toward our goal.

We’ve consulted the members.

We filed our sectoral and intersectoral demands with the government.

Why two separate sets of demands?

The intersectoral demands deal with wages, pensions, parental rights and regional disparities.
The sectoral demands cover all other demands related to school support staff.

This is when we take to the streets?

It depends on their offers, the government is swimming in budget surpluses.

You’re right. In the education sector, things have to change now!