

Watch out, we're keeping the pressure on!

We've reached a crossroads with the Francophone and Anglophone employer negotiators, and more pressure is required if we hope to reach a settlement that meets our expectations. We are dealing with a government that announces to the people of Quebec with great fanfare at a press conference that they are ready to negotiate, but the reality is quite different at the negotiating tables. After 54 meetings at the Francophone table and 42 at the Anglophone table, there is still no agreement on the horizon.

It can't be that after a year and a half of face-to-face talks there will not be a significant breakthrough for FPSS-CSQ school support staff.

This is why we are paraphrasing the Québécoise band Loco Locass and telling the government to "Watch out, we're keeping the pressure on!"

Thus, in accordance with mandates adopted by our voting bodies and approved by local general assemblies, we would like to inform you that the following notices for a half-day strike by our entire membership have been submitted to the appropriate authorities:
